Cultural fest: An eventful week

cultural connect

Glimpses of the participants of Folk Fusion and their performances.

The cultural dept. of MMCC organized a week-long cultural fest comprising a number of competitions and events from March 23, 2023.

The competitions like Sur & Saaz – Singing & Instrument Performance, Folk Fusion, Salad Decoration & Healthy Chat,

Hairstyle Competition, Business Plan, Doodle-Art, Reel Making and treasure hunt witnessed over more than 1000 students participating actively as well as coordinating the events with the staff.

The cultural fest also included the infamous days like traditional day, clan day, twin day, folk fusion day, etc. where not only students but the teachers were also seen dressing up and actively taking part in the events. The cultural department is constantly brainstorming colourful and creative ideas for the students and staff under the support and guidance of Dr. Meenal Kabra.

Apart from this, flagship cultural events filled with talent shows, sports and different competitions - Priyadarshani Yuvati Manch of Commerce Department and Pegasus of Computer Science department were also organized.

A Big Business Starts Small

Business plan, a competition based on the idea of startups was organized by the cultural department in the cultural week. 15 students participated in the competition and presented their entrepreneurial ideas for running their business. This event was coordinated and executed by Prof. Snehal Borkar and Dr. Ashwini Kulkarni.

A very Musical Morning

The cultural week kickstarted with the event titled “Sur Aur Saaz” on March 23, where around 30 students from all departments showcased their musical talent. The event was filled with Indian songs, classical music, Rap and much more. The program was coordinated and executed by Prof. Dr. Shilpa Kabra and Prof. Yogita Renuse.

Folk Dance with a Fusion Tadka

Folk Fusion dance competition, organised by cultural department in the annual cultural fest on March 24 showcased a variety of dance performances with unique themes put up by various choreography and songs. Though the theme was quite new and unique, the event witnessed an overwhelming participation of over 15 groups and total 360 students.

Because the theme was “Folk Fusion”, all the dances which were performed were rich in culture and represented the traditions of India. The audience as well as the teachers were seen enthusiastically tapping and dancing along the beats of the musical numbers performed. “Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav” was celebrated in a real sense.

The program was coordinated and executed by Dr. Meenal Kabra, Prof. Geeta Patil and Prof. Neeta Patil.
