The Department of Commerce of MMCC, Deccan Gymkhana, Pune in collaboration with ICAI - WIRC Pune chapter inaugurated the Accounting Museum on 31st December, 2021 at 11.15 am in Commerce building by CA Sameer Laddha (Chairman - ICAI;WIRC,Pune Chapter).

Chairman was Dr. Devidas Golhar,Principal MMCC.Chief guest was CA Sameer Laddha. This museum has been set up with the objective of introducing the student with changes in accounting,changing methods of transactions, old coins, currency, medals, old balance sheets, checks, ledgers etc. under one roof.

ICAI, Pune branch Vice president and secretary CA Kashinath Pathare, Amrita Kulkarni, former president Abhishek Dhamne,faculty members and students of college were also present on the occasion.

ICAI Pune is the first branch in India to set up such museums in five colleges, said CA Sameer Laddha.

Objectives :

The museum has been established by the ICAI with an aim to share and preserve the heritage of the Chartered Accountancy (CA) profession and commemorate the diamond jubilee year of the institute.

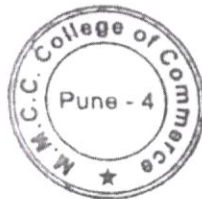

The museum also provides a journey through various stages of the glorious past of the CA profession in India and the conception and growth of ICAI.

Focus of the museum is on the accountancy practices in ancient, medieval and modern India. The museum through its collection of rare and unique items on display traces the evolution of bookkeeping, accounting and profession of accountants in India.

This Accountancy Museum has been conceptualized as an assemblage to trace the origin and growth of accountancy in India and in the world. Focus of the Museum is on the accountancy practices in ancient, medieval and modern India. The Museum through its collection of rare and unique items on display traces the evolution of bookkeeping, accounting and profession of accountants in India.
