Report on Research Methodology Workshop

The Research Methodology Workshop was held on 18th January, 2022 at Dnyaneshwar Hall for M.Com II students. The resource person for the workshop was Principal Dr. Devidas Golhar.

The workshop began with an overview of the importance of research methodology in generating reliable and valid research outcomes. Students gained insights into the role of research design, data collection methods, and analysis techniques in conducting meaningful research.

The workshop also covered quantitative research methods such as surveys, experiments, and statistical analysis. Students learned about sampling techniques, data collection instruments, and statistical tools used in quantitative research.

The workshop aimed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of various research methodologies applicable in academic and professional contexts. The workshop included presentations, interactive sessions, and practical demonstrations to enhance participants' knowledge and skills in research methodology.

In all 53 students attended the workshop and gave positive feedback.
