REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE ON GLOBAL LEADERSHIP AND INTERNATIONAL TALENT EXCHANGE BY IYF

In accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) established with the International Youth Fellowship (IYF), a guest lecture was organized on the topics of global leadership and international talent exchange. The lecture aimed to enlighten students pursuing graduation about the myriad opportunities available on the global stage, both in terms of education and employment.

The primary objective of the lecture was to familiarize participants with the principles and qualities of effective global leadership. Through informative presentations and engaging discussions, attendees gained insights into the essential attributes and skills required to succeed as leaders in an increasingly interconnected world.

The lecture sought to elucidate the various avenues for international talent exchange, including opportunities for academic exchange programs, internships, and career placements abroad. Participants were introduced to the benefits and challenges associated with international mobility, as well as practical steps for pursuing such opportunities.

An integral aspect of the lecture was to empower students with knowledge about the diverse range of international opportunities available to them. Attendees received guidance on accessing resources, networking platforms, and support services to facilitate their participation in global leadership initiatives and talent exchange programs.

A total of 62 students actively participated in the guest lecture, demonstrating a strong interest in exploring global leadership and international opportunities. The interactive nature of the session facilitated meaningful dialogue, allowing participants to share their aspirations, concerns, and questions regarding global engagement and talent exchange.
