REPORT
On
Celebration of Rakhi for Nation

The Rakhi, traditionally tied by sisters on the wrists of their brothers, represents a vow of protection. When sent to soldiers, it symbolizes the nation's promise to stand by them in their duties and to protect the country. This act reinforces the soldiers' commitment and reminds them that they are not alone in their service.

In collaboration with Savitribai Phule Pune University, Marathwada Mitra Mandal's College of commerce have sent rakhis and letters to the Soldiers on the occasion of Rakshabandhan. Total 52 Students and staff members from various departments participated in the activity. Students and staff members have prepared one envelope each, which carries one rakhi and one letter for our beloved soldiers. All the rules mentioned by the university were followed by the students and faculty members for the preparation of the Rakhi.

All the rakhis and letters were collected by the student representative Aman Lokhande and Yuvaraj Mohire. Those letters were submitted to the Savitribai Phule Pune University's Student Development Cell for the further process.

Sending letters and Rakhis to national soldiers on Raksha Bandhan is a heartwarming and emotionally charged tradition that not only touches the hearts of our brave defenders but also strengthens the bond between the armed forces and the civilian population. It serves as a reminder of the sacrifices made by soldiers to protect the nation and the enduring gratitude they receive in return. This practice not only honors the spirit of Raksha Bandhan but also enhances the national sentiment, promoting unity and patriotism across the country.
