DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
Report On Guest Lecture On "Careers in Finance"

Date: 16/07/2024

Time: 10:00 am to 11:00 am

Venue: Justice PB Sawant Hall, Central Building

The guest lecture on the "Careers in Finance" was delivered by Mr. Pranav Desai, University Relations Officer Global Partnerships and Client Solutions-APAC. The lecture commenced with an overview of the finance industry, highlighting its significance in the global economy.

Objective:

The session aimed to provide students with insights into the diverse career opportunities within the finance industry and equip them with practical knowledge to navigate their career paths.

The session also highlighted the various career paths available to CFA charter holders along with emerging areas where CFA charter holders are increasingly in demand, such as fintech, ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance) investing, and data analytics.

Observations:

Sir also provided detailed information on the structure of the CFA exams, including the content of each level. He also shared tips on effective preparation strategies, such as time management, understanding the exam format, and the importance of practicing with mock exams. He candidly discussed the challenges of pursuing the CFA charter, including the rigorous study schedule and the demanding nature of the exams. However, these challenges were framed as worthwhile investments given the long-term career benefits and personal satisfaction associated with achieving the designation.

Key Outcomes:

Total 167 students attended the lecture. The lecture concluded with a fun quiz and interactive Q&A session where students had the opportunity to ask questions. Students expressed positive feedback, noting that the lecture was both informative and interesting.

The guest lecture was organised by Asst. Prof. Reshma Awati and coordinated by the faculties of Department of Business Administration.
