DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
Report On Workshop on Patent Law and Regulations

Date: 18/07/2024

Time: 10:00 am to 11:00 am

Venue: Justice PB Sawant Hall, Central Building

A one day workshop on "Patent Law and Regulations" was delivered by Ms. Kshitija Kulkarni, IP Lawyer and Patent Agent, LegaInnovate Consultancy. The workshop began with an introduction to the basics of patent law. She explained what constitutes a patent, the different types of patents, and the criteria for patentability, which include novelty, non-obviousness, and industrial applicability. She also highlighted the importance of patents in protecting intellectual property and encouraging innovation.

Objective:

The workshop aimed to familiarize students with the fundamental aspects of patent law, the process of patenting, and the regulatory environment surrounding intellectual property (IP) rights.

Observation:

The workshop also covered the topic of patent infringement and enforcement. Ethical issues surrounding patent law were highlighted, including the balance between protecting inventors' rights and ensuring public access to new technologies. She also discussed common challenges faced by inventors, such as the costs associated with patenting and the complexities of navigating the legal system.

Key Outcome:

The workshop on "Patent Law and Regulations" was a comprehensive and informative session that equipped the students with essential knowledge of the patenting process and the legal framework governing intellectual property rights. Total 140 students attended the workshop. The workshop concluded with an engaging Q&A session, where participants asked questions about specific aspects of patent law, the impact of recent legal developments on patenting strategies, and career opportunities in intellectual property law.

The guest lecture was organised by Asst. Prof. Reshma Awati and coordinated by the faculties of Department of Business Administration.
