DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Report on Principal's Address and Faculty Interaction

Date: 4th July, 2025

Time: 10:30 am onwards

Venue: Classroom No. 101

To formally commence the academic term, the Department of Business Administration organised a special session featuring an address by the Principal Dr. Ganesh Patare sir followed by an interactive discussion with the faculty members and orient the students of SY and TY BBA/BBA-IB.

Objective:

The primary objective of the session was to welcome students and build enthusiasm for the new academic year and introduce them to the structure, vision, and opportunities under the NEP 2020 framework. It also aimed to outline academic expectations and encourage participation in curricular and co-curricular initiatives and create a stronger connection between students and faculty for collaborative academic success.

Observations:

Dr. Ganesh Patare sir warmly addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of academic consistency, skill development, and ethical values in professional education. Key messages included the need for goal setting, time management, and holistic personality development. He also encouraged students to utilize institutional resources, participate in industry-oriented events, and prepare for future career opportunities. The orientation aimed to help students understand how NEP 2020 empowers them to take ownership of their learning journey. Students were guided on how the new pattern would be implemented in their remaining academic years. Faculty members discussed course structures, assessments, industrial visits, research projects, and placement preparation. Opportunities like value-added programs, certification courses, and entrepreneurship activities were highlighted.

Key Outcomes:

Total 98 students attended the session. It set a strong foundation for a meaningful academic year, aligned with national educational reforms and focused on the holistic development of students. Students gained clarity on academic structure, expectations, and the new NEP-based framework. The session fostered a sense of academic purpose, motivation, and connectedness. Overall, the session created a positive and energized start to the academic year. The workshop was organised by Asst. Prof. Reshma Awati and coordinated by all the faculties of Department of Business Administration.
