Report on One-Day Guest Lecture on Rights & Duties of Indian Youth

1. Nature of the Event: One-Day Guest Lecture
2. Title of the Event: Rights & Duties of Indian Youth
3. Organised by: Electoral Literacy Club
4. Date: Saturday, 13th September 2025
5. Time: 11:00 AM – 12:15 PM
6. Venue: Dnyaneshwar Hall
7. Resource Person: Dr Arun Adsul, Former Vice-Chancellor, Savitribai Phule Pune University
8. Objectives of the Program

The primary objectives of conducting this guest lecture were:

- To create awareness among students about their fundamental rights and constitutional duties.
- To emphasise the role of youth in strengthening democratic values and practices. To motivate students towards self-discipline, self-control, and responsible citizenship.
- To inspire youth to actively participate in nation-building and contribute to social progress.
- To encourage critical thinking and responsible decision-making in personal and professional life

9. Audience:

The session was organised for students of BBA, B.Com, BCA, and B.Sc. (CS) to enrich their civic knowledge, strengthen democratic values, and foster a sense of responsibility as future citizens of India.

10. Number of Participants:

A total of 133 participants actively attended the guest lecture, contributing to its overall success.

11. Brief description of the event:

Dr. Arun Adsul delivered an insightful lecture on the theme Rights & Duties of Indian Youth. He highlighted that self-discipline, self-control, and determination are key values for today's youth. He further emphasised that awareness of one's rights and the performance of duties are equally essential in building a strong democracy.

The session also focused on how responsible youth can contribute to nation-building by balancing individual aspirations with collective responsibilities. Students engaged actively during the interactive question-and-answer session, making the event more meaningful and impactful.

12. Learning Outcome:

The session successfully achieved its intended goals, resulting in the following outcomes:

- Students gained clarity on their rights and duties as citizens of India.
- They understood the importance of active participation in democracy.
- The lecture enhanced awareness about the youth's role in shaping society.
- Students developed motivation towards responsible behaviour and self-discipline.
- The interactive session encouraged critical thinking and civic responsibility.
