9. Brief description of the event:

The Department of Business Administration organized a Guest Session on “Campus to Corporate” on 30th October 2025 at Sant Dnyaneshwar Hall. The session was conducted by Mrs. Aditi Ganage, Deputy Director Corporate Relations at Marathwada Mitra Mandal Group.

The program began with a warm welcome and introductory followed by the session highlighting the importance of professional grooming and readiness for corporate life as students have just begun their academic journey.

Mrs. Ganage provided valuable insights into the corporate world. She discussed the difference between academic learning and workplace expectations, emphasizing the importance of communication skills, time management, and adaptability. Through engaging examples, she explained how students can build a positive professional image and handle challenges effectively in a corporate setup.

She also touched upon the significance of continuous learning. The interactive session allowed students to clarify their doubts and gain practical advice on entering and succeeding in the corporate sector.

The event concluded with a question–answer round followed by a vote of thanks.

10. Learning Outcome:

Students understood the key skills and attitudes required for corporate success. They gained insights into workplace culture, ethics, and professional behaviour. The session helped students bridge the gap between academic preparation and corporate expectations. Students felt more confident and motivated to pursue their professional careers with the right mindset.
