9. Brief description of the event:

The Department of Business Administration organized a Faculty Interaction and Principal's Address on 31st October 2025 at Sant Dnyaneshwar Hall. The event aimed to strengthen the bond between students and faculty while providing guidance and motivation from the principal.

The session commenced with a welcome note by Dr. Ganesh Patare, Principal I/C. In his inspiring speech, he emphasized the importance of time management, consistency, and professional ethics in academic and personal life. He motivated students to focus on their goals, conduct self SWOC Analysis, make the best use of available resources, and actively participate in co-curricular and extracurricular activities for all-round development.

Followed by Dr. Gurmeet Kaur Rajpal, Head of the Department of Business Administration's introduction of the department. She introduced all the faculty members and highlighted their areas of expertise, teaching methodology, and contribution towards student development. Each faculty member briefly interacted with students, sharing insights about academic expectations, learning approaches, and opportunities for growth within the department.

Dr. Sushil Gangane ED Cell coordinator and Asst. Librarian Rahul Dhanwate also briefed the students in their respective areas.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Asst. Prof. Rushika Kinjawdekar, who expressed gratitude to the principal, faculty members, and students for making the session meaningful and interactive.

10. Learning Outcome:

Students gained valuable insights into the academic structure, faculty support, and expectations of the department. The principal's address inspired students to pursue excellence and maintain a positive attitude. The session promoted open communication between students and faculty, creating a healthy academic environment. Students were motivated to balance academics with skill development and personal growth.
