Report on “Vande Mataram 150 Years Initiative”

Event Name: Vande Mataram – 150 Years Initiative

Organised by: Asst. Prof. Dashrath Gavit (NSS PO) and Asst. Prof. Snehal Borkar (SDO)

Day and Date: Friday, 07th November 2025

Venue: MMCC Campus, near Principal's Cabin

Audience: Students, Faculties, Non-Teaching Staff

Number of Participants: 243

Objectives of the Event:

- To commemorate the 150th anniversary of “Vande Mataram,” written by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee in 1875.
- To honour the national song that inspired India's freedom struggle and promoted unity among Indians.
- To instill patriotism and respect for national heritage among students and staff.
- To encourage collective participation in national initiatives and strengthen institutional harmony.

Brief Description of the Event:

The Vande Mataram 150 Years Initiative was organized by Asst. Prof. Dashrath Gavit (NSS PO) and Asst. Prof. Snehal Borkar (SDO) on Friday, 7th November 2025, at the college campus near the Principal's Cabin.

The program commenced at 11:00 a.m. with the collective singing of “Vande Mataram” by all students, teaching, and non-teaching staff. Participants engaged wholeheartedly, expressing their respect and devotion to the nation. Those attending lectures or practical sessions joined the singing by standing in their respective classrooms.

The Principal, Dr. Ganesh Patore, addressed the gathering and spoke about the historical and cultural significance of “Vande Mataram” as a symbol of unity and freedom. The NSS volunteers ensured smooth coordination of the event. The technical arrangements were efficiently managed by Mr. Pravin More and Mr. Pratik Katale, with the support of all faculty members and non-teaching staff.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants gained an understanding of the historical background and national importance of “Vande Mataram.”
- The event promoted patriotism, teamwork, and respect for cultural heritage.
- Students learned the value of collective participation and discipline in institutional and national activities.
- It strengthened the spirit of unity and national integrity within the college community.
