5. Time: 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

6. Venue: Dnyaneshwar Hall

7. Resource Person: CMA Himanshu Dave

8. Objectives of the Programme-

- To create awareness among students about the CMA (Cost and Management Accountant) course and its professional scope.
- To guide students in making informed career decisions in the field of management accounting and finance.
- To explain the CMA course structure, examination pattern, and eligibility criteria.
- To highlight career opportunities, job roles, and industry demand for CMA professionals.
- To motivate students to pursue professional courses alongside their academic studies.

9. Audience

The programme was attended by all B.Com students. The session was specifically designed to address the career concerns and professional aspirations of undergraduate commerce students.

10. Number of Participants:

A total of 101 participants actively attended the session contributing to its overall success.

11. Brief description of the event:

The speaker provided an overview of the CMA course offered by the Institute of Cost Accountants of India (ICMAI), including its three levels—Foundation, Intermediate, and Final. The session covered course duration, syllabus, examination pattern, registration process, and practical training requirements. Real-life examples and personal experiences were shared to help students understand the relevance of CMA in corporate, manufacturing, service, and consultancy sectors.

The session concluded with an interactive question-and-answer segment, where students actively clarified their doubts regarding career prospects, salary packages, and global opportunities.

12. Learning Outcome:

At the end of the session, students were able to:

- Understand the CMA course structure and eligibility requirements.
- Identify career opportunities available to CMA professionals.
- Relate CMA knowledge with their B.Com curriculum.
- Gain clarity on career planning in accounting and management fields.
- Develop motivation to pursue CMA as a professional qualification.
