Report on “Tug of War”

1. Nature of the event: Tug of War competition, team-based strength and endurance challenge.
2. Title of the event: Tug of War
3. Organized by: Department of Computer Applications
4. Date: Monday, 23rd February 2026
5. Time: 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM
6. Venue: MMCC Campus
7. Objectives of the Program:
The primary objectives of organizing this event were:
  1. To promote physical strength, endurance, and sportsmanship among students.
  2. To help students unwind and connect with their college, department, teachers, and classmates, building lasting bonds.
  3. To enhance teamwork, synchronized effort, grip strength, and integration with college culture.
  4. To develop time management and coordination skills under intense, short-burst conditions.
  5. To instill the importance of unity, resilience, and performing with collective power and determination.

8. Audience:

The event was specifically organized for students of FY BBA(CA), SY BBA(CA), and TY BBA(CA). It aimed to sharpen their physical strength, endurance, coordination, and involvement in co-curricular activities at our college.

9. Number of Participants:

A total of 120 participants enthusiastically competed, driving the event's thrilling success.

10. Brief description of the event:

Grasping college culture helps students understand institutional workings and rules, while classmate bonds foster unity. This event offered a platform to relax, connect, and channel strength, teamwork, endurance, and unified coordination through Tug of War.

The session started with team registrations and grip-strength warm-ups, progressing to best-of-three pulls in mixed-gender and year-wise categories using a standard 40-meter rope marked at the center. Rounds featured intense strategies like anchor positioning, synchronized tugs, and momentum shifts, sustaining high excitement.

Upon the finals' conclusion, respected Principal Dr. Kishor Nikam Sir and academic co-ordinator Dr. Ganesh Patare Sir honored the event with his attendance.

The session underscored confident leadership, coordination in pulling lines, raw power, teamwork, and accountability. Students were inspired to join co-curricular events fostering strength, resilience, unity, and innovation. The competitive vibe sparked collaboration, roars of encouragement, and deeper bonds.

11. Learning Outcome:

The event delivered impactful outcomes:

- Students relished the competition, voiced appreciation for its setup, and experienced pure thrill.
- They mastered synchronization, teamwork, cultivated mental toughness, and grasped event logistics.
- It instilled confidence for tackling real-life strains and challenges.
- The principal's interaction sharpened their bold communication skills.
- Ultimately, it developed leadership, stamina, unified coordination, and the essence of collective grit and persistence.
