- 8. Number of Participants:

A total of 130 students attended the farewell celebration
- 9. Brief description of the event:

The Department of Business Administration organized a vibrant and memorable Farewell Celebration for the final year students, themed “Masquerade Party”. The event was designed to celebrate the journey of the outgoing batch and provide them with a joyful and unforgettable send-off.

The venue was beautifully decorated in accordance with the masquerade theme, featuring elegant masks, ambient lighting, and a festive setup that created a lively and glamorous atmosphere. Students enthusiastically participated by wearing creative masks and stylish attire, adding charm and excitement to the celebration.

The program commenced with a welcome address by Head of Department Dr. Gurmeet Kaur Rajpal followed by Principal Dr. Kishor Nikam Sir. Juniors of SYBBA and SYBBA-IB put together entertaining dance performances to express their appreciation and affection for their seniors.

Students relived their journey of three years through a special video which had glimpses of them during events and guest lectures. These moments created an emotional yet joyful environment, strengthening the bond among students and faculty.

The event also included a few words from faculty members, who extended their best wishes and guidance to the graduating batch for their future endeavors. The farewell concluded with music, celebration, and group photographs, capturing cherished memories of the day.

The Masquerade Farewell successfully blended elegance, entertainment, and emotion, making it a memorable experience for everyone present.

10. Learning Outcome:

- Students developed teamwork and event management skills through active participation.
- The event enhanced bonding and interpersonal relationships among students.
- It provided a platform for creativity, expression, and confidence building.
- Students learned the importance of celebrating milestones and appreciating shared experiences.
