9. Brief description of the event:

The Department of Business Administration organized a Raksha Bandhan Celebration at SOFOSH's Shreevatsa – Home for Family Deprived Children, an NGO dedicated to providing care and support to children.

The activity was organized with the objective of spreading happiness among the children while also encouraging students to develop a sense of social responsibility and empathy.

The students enthusiastically participated in the celebration and interacted warmly with the children. The festival of Raksha Bandhan provided a meaningful opportunity to build bonds of affection, care, and togetherness. Students celebrated the occasion by tying rakhis, sharing moments of joy, and spending quality time with the children.

The interaction created a warm and positive environment, allowing students and children to connect beyond their usual social settings. The activity helped students understand the importance of compassion, kindness, and emotional support in the lives of others.

The celebration also served as a valuable experiential learning opportunity for the students. Through their interaction with the children, they developed greater sensitivity towards social issues and recognized the importance of contributing to the well-being of society.

Overall, the Raksha Bandhan celebration was a heartwarming and meaningful experience for everyone involved. The event successfully combined the joy of celebrating a traditional festival with the values of social responsibility, empathy, sharing, and inclusion.
