9. Brief description of the event:

Department of Business Administration in Collaboration with Cultural Committee organized “Navrang 2025” on Saturday, 17th October 2026, from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. at the MMCC Campus. “Navrang,” a vibrant Dandiya Garba cultural event, on the occasion of the festive season aimed to celebrate India's rich cultural heritage and provide students with an opportunity to participate in traditional dance and cultural activities.

The campus came alive with festive enthusiasm as students participated in the Dandiya Garba celebration with great excitement. Dressed in colourful traditional attire, students enjoyed the rhythmic beats of Garba music and the energetic atmosphere. The event provided a lively platform for students to showcase their enthusiasm, celebrate cultural traditions, and interact with their peers beyond the classroom.

The event was made successful through the dedicated efforts of student volunteers, who contributed to its planning, coordination, and execution. Their teamwork and commitment played an important role in ensuring the smooth conduct of the celebration.

To add to the excitement, students were judged on their attire and dancing skills. The titles of Best Dressed Male, Best Dressed Female, Best Dancer Male, and Best Dancer Female were awarded to selected students from among the participants. This recognition encouraged healthy competition and added an element of fun and enthusiasm to the celebration.

Navrang was a memorable cultural experience that brought students and faculty members together in a spirit of joy, unity, and togetherness. The event concluded on a positive note, leaving participants with cherished memories and strengthening the spirit of community within the college.

Following students were declared as winners:

- Best Dressed Male:
