A total of 111 students attended the session.

9. Brief description of the event:

The Department of Business Administration organized a one-day workshop titled “Building Personality for Professional Excellence” to emphasize the importance of personality development in shaping students’ personal and professional growth. The workshop aimed to equip students with essential soft skills and behavioral competencies required to succeed in the corporate environment.

The workshop focused on various aspects of personality development, including self-awareness, confidence building, effective communication, interpersonal relationships, positive thinking, and professional conduct. Students were encouraged to recognize their individual strengths and work on areas that required improvement to enhance their overall personality.

The importance of verbal and non-verbal communication, body language, appropriate grooming, professional etiquette, and maintaining a positive attitude was highlighted. The session also emphasized the role of emotional intelligence, teamwork, adaptability, and time management in developing a well-rounded personality and building successful professional relationships.

Students were encouraged to actively participate in the learning process and understand how their behavior, attitude, and communication influence their personal effectiveness and professional image. The workshop highlighted that professional excellence extends beyond academic qualifications and requires continuous self-improvement, discipline, confidence, and a willingness to learn.

The workshop provided students with valuable insights into developing a professional personality and preparing themselves for future academic challenges, employment opportunities, and corporate responsibilities.

10. Learning Outcome:
